

Conference Features from Liturgy Training Publications

1 For those wanting a greater understanding of the Word

In this time of social distancing, effective practice and proclamation of Scripture is essential. As assembly members continue to experience Mass in a variety of ways, they still encounter the Lord through the Word proclaimed—at home through live streaming, or in a church while socially distanced.

Whether preparing readings for live-streamed or in-person Masses, Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word® continues to help and inspire readers and gives them tools they need to proclaim the Word at Mass, or simply reflect at home with a greater understanding of the readings.

2 Living the Sunday Word: Reflections as a Virtual Community

With sessions held on Tuesday evenings over the interactive Adobe Connect platform, we will take time to reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings, helping us to more fully celebrate the Word at liturgy. Throughout each session, reflections will be presented by a team of pastoral ministers, and participants will be invited to share their own thoughts on the lectionary readings.

Free throughout December. Visit ltp.org/s/virtual-conversations for more information and registration.

3 For home prayer and reflection

At Home with the Word® guides readers to a deeper understanding of the Sunday Scriptures, providing the readings for the liturgical year, insights from Scripture scholars, and action steps to help parishioners fully connect with the readings from Mass. Equally beneficial for personal, family, or small group use, At Home with the Word is an excellent complement to Sunday Mass.

For each Sunday, At Home with the Word® provides:

- ✓ Full texts of the three Scripture readings
- ✓ The responsorial psalm
- ✓ Insights into the readings written by Scripture scholars
- ✓ Suggestions for the practice of hope, faith, and charity
- ✓ Additional downloadable questions and activities for catechumenal groups, adult faith-sharing groups, and families
